Gray Puksand Graduate Program

We invite you to be part of a 12 month structured Graduate Program at Gray Puksand.

Learn all aspects of a project across our national practice, immersing yourself in the education, health, workspace + commercial sectors whilst being mentored by our leaders.

With a focus on driving innovation, we see an exciting opportunity to pursue a research project. This year, our Graduates have focused on advancing Rhino's integration into the business, building team capability, and delivering even stronger design outcomes for our clients.

Start your journey of placing people first, building on knowledge, leading through design and delivering real change.
